Post-War Drama
100 min.

In the final days of the turmoil of World War II with German soldiers abandoning a deportation train to the fate of advancing Russian troops, the chance encounter between the distrustful German girl Winnie, the courageous Dutch Jew Simone and the fearless Russian sniper Vera leads to an unexpected friendship between these women who could not be any more different from one another.

In the ruins of war, three strong female protagonists have to break away from their survival strategies and overcome their resentments. From a female perspective, Saskia Diesing Nena links real events with the fictional characters in the film to create a feminist and deeply human story about cohesion and friendship. It stars Hanna van Vliet ANNE+, Toon, Quicksand, Eugénie Anselin Bad Banks and Anna Bachmann Lost One in the lead roles.

Tortured and threatened with deportation, the young German Jew Stella is forced into a fateful tragedy: She begins to track down fellow Jews in hiding.

Stella, a young German Jew, grows up in Berlin during the rule of the Nazi regime. She dreams of a career as a jazz singer, despite all the repressive measures. After she is forced to go into hiding with her parents in February 1943, her life turns into a culpable tragedy. Through a betrayal, she is caught by the Gestapo, tortured and becomes a "grabber": to save herself and her parents from deportation to Auschwitz, Stella begins to systematically betray other Jews. From September 1943 until the end of the war, Stella Goldschlag delivered hundreds of fellow Jews to the Gestapo.

The special relevance of Stella Goldschlag's story for today's audience lies in the complexity of the protagonist and the hopelessness of her situation: "Stella – A Life" is a breathtakingly modern story. Her main character could be one of us: she is young, self-confident and in love with herself. This woman is a perpetrator – but also a victim. She forces us into the dilemma of betrayal. How would we have decided?" says director and writer Kilian Riedhof.

On the morning of 20 January 1942, in a villa on the lakefront of the Wannsee in Berlin, leading members of the Nazi regime came together. They had been invited by Reinhard Heydrich to a meeting followed by breakfast; The sole topic on the agenda that morning was what the Nazis called the Final Solution to the Jewish Question: the organization of the systematic mass murder of millions of Jews across Europe.

A historically accurate, haunting drama about a meeting that was part of planning the Holocaust. The film follows the protocol of this meeting. It was shot at the original location at Wannsee Lake in Berlin and produced by Constantin Film for the 80th commemoration day of the conference. It stars some of the most well-known German-speaking actors in the lead roles: Philipp Hochmair (The Experiment), Johannes Allmayer (Colonia Dignidad), Maximilian Brückner (Cherryblossoms), Thomas Loibl (Toni Erdmann) and Rafael Stachowiak (Undine).

On the run from the Nazis, Rolf and his father find themselves stranded in southern France. Their goal is to travel to New York where Rolf's mother is waiting. The only way to freedom is a hazardous path through the Pyrenees to Spain. The young shepherd girl Núria offers to guide them. When the father is arrested halfway, the two kids and Rolf's dog Adi have to escape on their own.

Director Tobias Wiemann (Mountain Miracle – An Unexpected Friendship) has succeeded with THE PATH in making a breathtaking film that is for adults as well as for a young audience. A story based on true historical events during the Second World War about courage, solidarity, the will to survive and friendship with Julius Weckauf (All About Me) in the lead role opposite Volker Bruch from Babylon Berlin and Anna Maria Mühe from Dogs of Berlin, among others. Produced by Daniel Ehrenberg (Eyrie Entertainment), the film combines an astonishingly light touch with great images and suspense to show what it means when children have to cope alone in fleeing war and terror and thus addresses a highly topical subject. THE PATH will be released theatrically in Germany by Warner Bros..

Maurice, a streetwise tomcat, has come up with the perfect money-making scam. The family entertainment film is inspired by the Grimm Brothers' fairytale about the Pied Piper of Hamelin – the cat and a young pipe player named Keith lead a band of rats from town to town faking rat invasions! It works perfectly – until their cheat is uncovered.

This incredibly lively, unique and entertaining animated feature film is based on one of Sir Terry Pratchett's highly popular Discworld novels that have sold more than 90 million books worldwide. One of the highest-grossing screenwriters of all time, Oscar-nominated Terry Rossio, whose extensive credits include Shrek, Aladdin, and Pirates of the Caribbean, has penned the screenplay. Carter Goodrich, who worked on Ratatouille, The Goods, Despicable Me, is onboard for the character design. The stellar voice cast is led by Emilia Clarke, Hugh Laurie, David Thewlis, Himesh Patel and Gemma Arterton. Toby Genkel (Ooops! Noah is Gone ...) is directing this international co-production.
