Fritzi (12) and Sophie (12) are inseparable friends – until Sophie has to secretly flee to the West with her mother. However, Fritzi refuses to accept that she will never see Sophie again.

GDR, Leipzig 1989: Germany is still divided into East and West. Friends Fritzi (12) and Sophie (12) don't really care – until Sophie's mother secretly flees with her daughter to the West. There, Sophie struggles with prejudice against "people from the GDR" and, above all, with homesickness. Fritzi's attempt to bring Sophie at least her dog Sputnik fails at the heavily guarded border. Fritzi realises that only the growing desire for freedom in her country can bring her closer to her goal.

In a captivating narrative set against the backdrop of 1989 divided Germany, "Fritzi and Sophie – A borderless Friendship" intertwines themes of unwavering friendship, resilience in the face of adversity, and the historical significance of the fall of the Berlin Wall, offering audiences a poignant exploration of childhood bonds and the pursuit of freedom.

THE HUNTED

BY SEBASTIAN DEHNHARDT

“The Hunted” documents the personal journey of Germany’s only Tour de France winner Jan Ullrich. For the first time, he speaks candidly about his greatest triumph, about the doping scandal that ended his career, and about his dark descent into drug abuse.

In “Jan Ullrich – The Hunted” this exceptional athlete speaks for the first time about his own journey. This four-part documentary takes an exclusive and critical look at his career, his successes, and his dizzying fall from grace. In the late 1990s, Ullrich sparked huge enthusiasm for cycling in Germany. Then Germany’s only Tour de France winner took a wrong turn: doping, alcohol, and criminal offenses. Together with Jan Ullrich, the viewers travel to the most important locations in his life: from his early life to the scene of his great triumph in Paris and then onto the setting for his most difficult personal defeats – with commentary from Ullrich himself, his former cycling rival Lance Armstrong, his friends, his colleagues and his family.

For the first time, Jan Ullrich shares his personal journey, providing viewers with an exclusive and intimate look into the highs and lows of his remarkable career.

In the surprising comedy drama “Chameleon”, the flamboyant wannabe-actor Chris and his three childhood friends want to make it in life and escape the deprived neighborhood they grew up in.

A lot of other kids chose the “get rich fast”-option of drug crime, but the four friends manage so far to stay on the right side of the law, although that becomes almost impossible when Chris’ mother is fired and his family is in dire need of money. When they accidentally have a run-in with local gangster Murat which ends up with them owing the guy 10k, things heat up very fast. Will they be able to stay on the right track or will the gangster life turn out to be inescapable? What about their dreams?

“Chameleon” is offering a compelling exploration of socioeconomic struggles and the temptation of criminality in deprived neighborhoods, providing audiences with thought-provoking insights into the complexities of urban life.

BY THOMAS SEEBERG TORJUSSEN, DANIEL VOLDHEIM

Norway, sometime in the future. Anton and Emma are both sixteen and live in the same city, but in different climate zones. They were never supposed to meet, and certainly not to fall in love.

Anton lives in a dome – a human-engineered environment large enough to house a small city. Anton is a privileged and well-liked kid, on track to make his family proud. But he is also tired of being good, and in the midst of a raging, confusing puberty. Emma lives on the outside of Anton's dome. She belongs to a clan comprised of her extended family. As a child, Emma sometimes accompanied her mother into the dome where she got some part-time work. Emma used to dream of living like the kids inside. But lately, she's been feeling a radical, righteous anger. And that anger, that indignation, is shared by many communities on the outside. Emma and Anton meet in the first episode, under scandalous circumstances, and an adventure ensues. Will they get to be together, despite their families' best efforts to keep them apart?

"Dome 16" is an exciting and thought-provoking series about young people who find themselves on different sides of the class divide in an imaginary future.

"Munich '72" will relive the 5th of September 1972, minute-by-minute. A group of Palestinian terrorists invade the Olympic Village and abduct members of the Israeli Olympic Team. The ensuing political debacle resulted in a notoriously botched rescue operation that ultimately ended with all 11 hostages' deaths.

"Munich '72" is a three part documentary series that examines the events of September 5th, 1972 with all the hindsight that 50 years provides. Using dramatic recreations of the events to bring them to life, the series features the Palestinian, Israeli and German perspectives. Featuring in depth interviews with former Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak, Ex-Mossad Boss Zvi Zamir and Israeli Olympians Esther Roth Chamorro, Sholmit Nir and Gad Tsobari the series examines all angles of the fateful day.

"Munich '72" is a blend of documentary and fiction, supported by newly declassified protocols and directed by Roman Shumunov ("Berenshtein – The Last Partisan"). The documentary will present a close-up and dramatic representation of one of the most infamous terror strikes of the 20th century.

The young lawyer Clara goes beyond all moral limits to have her father, the famous singer Carsten, declared innocent of raping her best friend Leonie.

The case leaks to the press, becoming a scandal that puts Clara and her entire family in the spotlight. As Clara discovers her father's affair with her friend Leonie, doubts about Leonie's statement grow within her. Because Clara's father admits to having had an intimate relationship with Leonie, but denies any violence, a trial is set to take place, during which all parties involved will reconsider their positions on the facts of this case. Leonie will ask herself if she really said no. Carsten will deal with whether he perceived the limits of the woman he loves. Clara will try everything to protect her family, but bit by bit she will see how the truths on which she has built her life slowly fall apart.

A family drama by the creators of "Spy City" about a rape accusation, where truths and certainties unravel in a case that's neither black nor white.

Against the backdrop of Berlin's great revue theater, in a divided Germany, two women are searching for their roots. A moving, exhilarating and life-affirming story.

East Berlin, 1988. To celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Republic, an extravagant birthday show is undergoing rehearsals at the Friedrichstadt-Palast. During these exciting hours, young dancer Christine suddenly comes face to face with her doppelgänger: Marlene, a businesswoman from West Germany seated in the audience, who happens to be Christine's twin sister she knew nothing about. In this fateful moment, two worlds, which could not be more different, suddenly collide. To find out about their respective lives in the East and the West, the two sisters swap places, taking enormous risks and pushing their emotions to the limit yet still having great fun in this adventure of a lifetime ...

This lavish, highly entertaining tentpole production was shot at the world's biggest theater stage. "The Palace" is directed by Uli Edel ("The Baader Meinhof Complex") and stars Svenja Jung ("Deutschland 89"), Daniel Donskoy ("Victoria", "The Crown") and Heino Ferch ("Ku'Damm", "Downfall").

BY KARIN FAHLÉN

When a Nordic Airlines flight to the USA is hijacked by remote control, a team of Swedish investigators must race against time to unveil the identity of the mysterious hijackers before they either bring down the plane themselves or it gets shot out of the sky by the US military.

Frederika Bergman, who is brought into the team by Sapo's Eden Lundell, is reunited with her former police colleague Alex Recht, whose son Erik is the plane's co-pilot. Soon, she finds herself in an adrenaline-fueled race against time to save the lives of everyone on board, while personal conflicts, technical issues and an unfolding conspiracy threaten to derail her search for the truth. Fredrika starts to doubt Eden's version of events, suspecting that the answer to the mystery may be found much closer to the investigation itself. At the heart of it all is Said Kehlifi – a Syrian academic imprisoned controversially while giving a lecture in Sweden, whose case Fredrika has been working on. Is Kehlifi the mastermind behind the hijacking, and if so by what means? As the plane hurtles towards disaster, who is controlling who?

A 6-part thriller set in the long shadow of the "War on Terror", "Hostage" is a nail-biting study of people imprisoned by their pasts.

A medieval crime thriller about a Tallinn pharmacist who has to uncover the secret behind a terrible wave of murders that threatens to wreck the entire Christian world.

Melchior Wakenstede is a clever and curious apothecary who, in addition to healing the sick, solves the mysteries that are upsetting his town. In a medieval world where people look for signs from God or the Devil, everything the Melchior accomplishes seems truly magical. Some even believe that Melchior's detective skills speak with the dead! However, his "secret weapon" primarily lies in his keen ability to notice treacherous details rather than in comprehending the scant information required before people reveal ...

"Melchior" is a medieval crime thriller, which is based on Indrek Hargla's series of best-selling crime novels full of secrets, adventure, and suspense. “The New Front” follows a young police officer who falls in love with a secretive young man and ends up entangled in a right-wing extremist conspiracy.

When Julia, a young trainee police officer, meets secretive stranger Nick, she finds herself falling for him almost instantly. But after their first night together, she is shocked to see that Nick has a huge swastika tattoo on his back. Despite all the advice to forget the guy immediately, she decides to investigate the right-wing extremist scene for herself. Following a trail deep into the forests of the Eifel mountains to the abandoned bunkers of Hitler’s Siegfried Line, Julia finds the hideout of a terrorist, revealing a connection she never could have imaged.

Produced by Gaumont Germany (“Barbarians”), this edge-of-your-seat thriller stars Emma Bading (“Play”), Jannik Schümann (“Charité”), David Striesow (“Dignity”, “8 Days”) and Jeanette Hain (“Babylon Berlin”).

The investigation into the disappearance of Barbara Neder by the police authority in charge is less than exemplary. Her brother decides to take on the case himself – unaware that the search for Barbara will take more than 30 years and will reveal a series of horrific murders.

In the summer of 1989, Barbara Neder, the sister of high-ranking Hamburg police officer Thomas Bethge, disappears from her home without a trace. Shortly before this, two couples had been cruelly murdered in nearby woodlands. Suspicion quickly shifts toward artist Hans Ligner, who is a gun enthusiast living on the forest's edge. However, the links between the earlier murder cases, the "Killer Forest" and Barbara's disappearance remain unnoticed by the investigators initially. Instead the police's focus turns to Barbaras husband, who was in the midst of divorcing her. Their daughter Theresa is profoundly affected by her mother's disappearance and the mounting suspicions surrounding her father. These circumstances lead Theresa to believe that her father might be her mother's murderer.

Inspired by real-life-events that took place in the late 1980s, this sinister mini-series tells the story about a family tragedy, and of a brother searching for his missing sister for more than 30 years.

When her boyfriend signs her up for a fat camp, Gigi reluctantly accepts the challenge. But things don't go as planned. Instead of losing weight, Gigi ultimately gets rid of the unhealthiest thing in her life: her toxic relationship.

After a year of being in a long-distance relationship, Gigi is about to move in with her boyfriend David. Just before the move, David invites her on a surprise trip. But instead of a romantic holiday, David drops her off at a fat camp and leaves.

Gigi refuses to spend a single night in the camp and sets off to find David. After a day of walking and with the help of Noah, a cook at the local diner, Gigi gets to a nearby spa hotel. She finds out that David is spending holidays with friends there – only Gigi was not invited – and realises that he has been hiding her all along. As a plus-sized woman, Gigi does not fit into his life. David is serious: either Gigi loses the weight, or the relationship is over.

"Davos 1917" is a spy drama based on real events that occurred in the early days of the European Secret Services

The First World War is ravaging Europe. By contrast, Davos, the noble spa town in the Swiss Alps, seems like an oasis of peace. But behind the scenes, neutral Switzerland takes centre stage in a relentless battle between the secret agents of the world powers. The young nurse Johanna Gabathuler unexpectedly gets caught between the fronts of the spies: to win back her daughter, she gets involved in a deadly game with the German Secret Service – and suddenly becomes the tip of the scales in a risky plan that decides between war and peace.

"Davos 1917" is a major European big budget production by Contrast Film Zürich and Letterbox Filmproduktion Hamburg (producers of "Bad Banks"). The cinematically stunning and thrilling 6-part show is being co-produced by Amalia Film, Swiss television broadcaster SRF and the German production company ARD Degeto.

The Hegel Case: The famous forensic phonetician Matthias Hegel is a luminary in his field. Even the slightest deviation in the sound of a voice is enough for him to distinguish truth from lies and thus convict criminals. When Hegel confesses to a gruesome murder, true-crime podcaster Jula Ansorge believes there has been a mistake and does everything in her power to uncover the truth. But with her research she puts herself in mortal danger ...

Frequency of Death: When the young mother Cecile Dorm discovers that her baby has been kidnapped, she is horrified and immediately wants to call the police on 911 – but her husband, psychologist Jonathan Dorm, snatches the phone from her hand, overpowers his distraught wife and locks her in the attic of the house. The audio recording of the emergency call Cecile made is the only clue forensic phonetician Prof. Matthias Hegel and true-crime podcaster Jula Ansorge have in hand.

Light Crime
Series, 10 × 45 min

Tannie Maria sees food as “medicine for the body and heart”. She envies romance as much as she enjoys cooking and eating. But it’s death that shakes up Tannie Maria’s life, when one of the correspondents to her column is brutally murdered.

Maria Purvis is an empathetic, accomplished recipe advice columnist for a smalltown gazette. When Martine, a woman who had written to Maria about her abusive husband, is found dead, Maria joins forces with her local, risk-taking, rookie journalist colleague Jessie September. Between cooking rich mutton curry, decadent chocolate cake, answering letters and getting in the way of the local policemen, Maria and Jessie are determined to solve this murder mystery and catch the killer. But the killer might be following their traces just as quickly as they are hunting him ...

“Recipes for Love and Murder” is a charming quirky murder mystery series based on the acclaimed novel by best-selling and award-winning South African author Sally Andrew – Recipes for Love and Murder: A Tannie Maria Mystery. "Fast" tells the case-by-case story of the Fugitive Active Search Team within the Finnish National Bureau of Investigation. The elite team's mission is to improve domestic safety by tracking down and arresting dangerous or skilful fugitives. For each case, the team has 48 hours to locate the target before their trace turns cold.

The unit's leader is Karita, a former homicide squad boss, whose efficiency is based on her ability to see the fugitives as individuals, not just as faceless criminals who are born evil. A fugitive's motive for escaping can be anything from revenge to fear – or love. Once the motive is identified, the fugitive can be found without endangering the safety of others. At least that is what Karita thinks. The chase becomes personal when Karita's closest friend and colleague Niklas disappears during a fugitive case and is presumed dead. Karita's mission is to find out what happened to him while trying to lead her team and live up to her superiors' expectations.

"Fast" is a spectacular and thrilling crime / action series, that brings together Finland's greatest talents.

MOUNTAIN MURDERS

3 Seasons, 36 × 50 min

Chief Inspector Benedikt Beissl has been running his police station in Berchtesgaden pretty much on his own for many years, when all of a sudden the top brass decide to assign him a new colleague:

Jerry Paulsen is not only everything that Beissl is not, namely charming, talkative and open-hearted and as the son of an American GI, speaks English fluently. But all this bothers Beissl a lot less than the fact that Jerry also happens to be going out with his beloved daughter Johanna – this guy is practically his son-in-law! With his winning ways, the “wannabe Obama” really gets on Beissl’s wick. But when the pair are on a case, their private issues remain outside the door – well for the most part.

The stories of a mismatched pair of detectives and their family entanglements provide the perfect blend of incidental humor, family life and a varied array of criminal cases – all set against the imposing backdrop of the magnificent Alps. What else could you want in a successful police series?

2023. The sun is shining over Roegerhout. It seems to be a carefree summer, until Felix and his friends make an incredible discovery: the walkman no longer listens to the past, but to the future!

In season 3 of "3Hz", the walkman tunes into the future! Felix and his friends discover that in 2043, all the inhabitants of Roegerhout will be dispossessed and their entire village, including the swimming well, will disappear. All to make way for a brand new, green power plant. With the help of the walkman, the friends find out that the power plant will not be built on top of Roegerhout by chance, but serves to hide a big secret ... In 2023, will they succeed in unravelling that secret to prevent the destruction of their village?

This adventurous mystery series for kids and teens from International Emmy Kids Award-winning production company De Mensen (Nighthawks) takes the viewers on an exciting journey.

We follow the headstrong Zoë (13), who, together with her family has moved to the village of Berg en Bos.

Nervous about her first day at school, she meets Max (13), who claims that there was once a robot factory called Zenith in the hills outside the village. He is convinced that humanoid robots still exist and that they live in secret in the village. Zoë does not believe a word of it until she discovers that her favorite new schoolfriend Olivia (13) is in fact a robot.

"Zenith" is a comical and exciting youth series, bringing up-to-date entertainment to the whole family: a hacker girl, a namby-pamby warrior of 10 years and two overstrained parents have to fight their way back to a normal family life.

MISTER PAPER

BY STEVEN DE BEUL, BEN TESSEUR

GENRE

Cut-out Animation
Series, 26 x 5 min

Mister Paper cuts and sticks together the world that he wants. He lives in a paper house surrounded by paper nature. His companion is a cat.

Life is simply perfect for Mister Paper as he cuts and sticks his world together. With his scissors he can create anything he needs. He lives in a paper house in the middle of paper nature, with a cat for company. But with his scissors and his childlike imagination, he is never alone. He cuts out a cow, to have some milk for the cat. And when the cat doesn't want to play, he cuts out a dog to take for a walk. When sometimes his creations have a mind of their own, Mister Paper has to get creative again to deal with their waywardness. But with the help – or sometimes in spite – of his cat, our paper hero makes sure that everything turns out all right at the end of each episode.

An award-winning cut-out series with delightfully playful adventures that will inspire creativity and imagination in young viewers worldwide.

Life is never boring when your best friend is an apple witch! 134 years old (but very young at heart), Petronella loves her garden and all the creatures in it, from a goofy bunch of apple stick men to grumpy goblin Thornbush. She uses all her magical powers to care for them, but her magic is ... well, powerful but improvised.

She magics herself into the form of strict witch-in-chief Pestilla but forgets the spell to transform herself back when Pestilla arrives. She comes up with a new type of apple, but when she and her friends try them, they become invisible! She creates a second version of herself which ends up spreading havoc throughout the garden ... Luckily, there are the 9-year-old twins Leah and Louis who always find clever ways to help solve Petronella's hiccups. And Petronella's biggest and most important task is to protect the garden from the outside world. Together with her two best friends, she does everything to keep the garden's mysteries a secret from the twins' parents and other nosy visitors ...

A magical garden full of fun creatures, two children and a chaotic apple witch! A beautifully animated series for kids aged 4–8.

Series, 2 × 90 min

When homicide detective Tjark Wolf and police chief Femke Folkmer make a grisly discovery on the Friesian North Sea coast, they have no idea that this is just the start of their cooperation on a series of criminal cases, which will push them to their very limits – and even a step beyond.

Episode 1: The Grave on the Beach The fictitious town of Werlesiel is a tranquil spot on the Friesian coast. But the idyll is broken when a young woman disappears in a dense sea fog after a night out partying. Femke Folkmer, local police chief, does not believe that this is a regular missing persons case and starts looking into it. Soon after, Tjark Wolf arrives from the criminal investigation division (CID) in Wilhelmshaven to investigate the disappearance of the unknown woman.

Episode 2: A Deadly Trap While working a drugs case for the CID in Wilhelmshaven, Femke's and Tjark's colleague Ceylan Özer gets seriously injured, with her life hanging in the balance. Determined to catch the smugglers, Femke and Tjark chase down every lead and soon realise that in truth, a much bigger crime is underway here.

Shortly before the next Mother's Day, the investigators' nerves are on edge. The body of old Theodor Reifenrath is found in Mammolshain in the Taunus. Accident or murder?

The inspector also makes a gruesome discovery in the dog pound in front of the house. Next to an almost starved dog, she finds human bones buried under the ground: three women's corpses are recovered by the forensic experts. Who are the murdered women? It turns out that the bodies are those of foster parents. Pia and Oliver focus their investigations on the foster children who have all grown up and now lead their own lives. The striking killing pattern leads to a breakthrough in the investigation and to further unsolved murders: Apparently it is a serial killer who always murders on Mother's Day. And the next Mother's Day is just around the corner. Can the investigators solve the case?

"Nele Neuhaus' murder mysteries" have long been riveting readers in over 20 countries. Her crime stories unfold in mystical, fairy-tale-like settings in the Taunus region, where she sketches fascinating portraits of a society that flourishes between Frankfurt's skyscrapers and small rural towns.

Berlin is sexy, deadly and dangerous. The German capital is not only a party mecca, it tops in crime and murder as well. Inspectors Nina Rubin and Robert Karow are bigcity homicide cops and an uneven duo:

Nina is a hothead who tends to explode when confronted with individual injustice, while Robert is a cool, rational thinker with a healthy dose of mistrust for anyone and anything. Their murder cases lead them behind the scenes of glamorous Berlin, while a certain unsolved case hangs over it all, putting their partnership to the test: Robert was transferred from the narcotics department, where he has a shadowy history. Robert's former partner was found shot, and the murder weapon was found on Robert ...

A highly successful, gripping crime series set in vibrant Berlin, starring Mark Waschke ("Dark", "Generation War") as a brilliant logical investigator alongside Meret Becker ("Babylon Berlin", "Fabian") as his loyal colleague.

Series, 15 x 90 min

The tension between two women, which stems from their different backgrounds and investigative styles, drives the cases forward and pushes them to their limits – privately and professionally. But despite the turbulent circumstances and their often unconventional approaches, they always retain their sense of self, forming an unconventional, modern – and ultimately powerful – team.

When these two strong women clash with their conservative boss, it creates conflict but it also intensifies their determination, driving them even harder to pursue the truth and solve their cases. These cases are complex and contemporary – from online dating apps and the live murder of a social media influencer to a public witch hunt for paedophiles – and they always unfold differently ...

A crime series with a strong female focus just perfect for fans of contemporary crime thrillers.

A German single mom and a Polish cop have to work together to solve the cases that straddle the Oder river – learning as much about themselves as about each other in the process.

In the German-Polish police station in Swiecko by Frankfurt on the Oder, the successful odd couple Adam Raczek and Olga Lenski handle the investigations that involve Polish and German sides. Olga is a single mom, juggling her family life and police career with difficulty sometimes. Adam has Polish roots, but is at home on both sides of the border, and has a hard time dealing with his partner's chaotic private life sometimes. Despite the geographic proximity, there's a lot that divides the cops on both sides of the border, as they keep finding out in the course of their international cases ...

Crime knows no borders. Neither does a good detective show. The odd couple detectives are perfectly cast with Maria Simon ("Goodbye, Lenin!") and Lucas Gregorowicz ("Soul Kitchen", "Lammbock", "Our Mothers", "Our Fathers") in the leads.

A rape case is being heard at the Berlin District Court, a legal and human dilemma of immense explosive power. The future of two people and the fundamental values of our society are at stake.

It is a high-profile case: well-known TV presenter Katharina Schlüter and industrialist Christian Thiede have been having a secret affair for years, and are now sitting opposite each other in court. On the witness stand, Schlüter describes how the initially consensual sex in Thiede's apartment turned into rape. But is evidence such as traces of semen on the dress she wore that day enough? Experts and witnesses are heard, and an unexpected twist in the case does not make it any easier for the court to decide on credibility and truth.

A unique courtroom drama by bestselling author Ferdinand von Schirach and directed by Matti Geschonneck ("The Conference"). Through precise observation and listening, delicate questions and dilemmas are revealed, focusing on common values: Truth, justice and dignity.

In March '81, Johannes Erlemann (11) is kidnapped and imprisoned in a tiny dungeon. While his wealthy father is in custody, Johannes' mother Gabi desperately fights for her son's life.

It's the 1970s and Jochem Erlemann is the most charming rascal of the German business world. Even though his business practices are a thorn in the side of the state, the public prosecutor's office cannot put a stop to his game. On the contrary: Jochem even goes as far as to invite his "enemies" to the wild parties that he and his wife Gaby throw at the home they share with their boys, 11-year-old Johannes and his brother Andreas. The boys want for nothing until fate intervenes. The older boy Andreas is diagnosed with a rare form of cancer. Then in December 1980, Jochem Erlemann is arrested and held on remand. When Johannes is then kidnapped, it falls to his mother Gaby to raise the ransom of 3 million German marks, and deal with the shrewd kidnapers and distrustful police. After a two-week ordeal and a dramatic ransom handover, the young boy is freed and, in the courtroom, finds the strength to look the culprits in the eye.

With the real-life Johannes Erlemann on hand to advise, Oscar®-nominated director Marc Rothemund was entrusted with the task of telling an authentic story.

A historically accurate, haunting drama about a meeting that was part of planning the Holocaust.

On the morning of 20th January 1942, in a villa on the lakefront of the Wannsee in Berlin, leading members of the Nazi regime came together. They had been invited by Reinhard Heydrich to a meeting followed by breakfast. The sole topic on the agenda that morning was what the Nazis called the Final Solution to the Jewish Question: the organisation of the systematic mass murder of millions of Jews across Europe.

The film follows the protocol of this meeting. It was shot at the original location at Wannsee Lake in Berlin and produced by Constantin Film for the 80th commemoration day of the conference. It stars some of the most well-known German-speaking actors in the lead roles: Philipp Hochmair ("The Experiment"), Johannes Allmayer ("Colonia Dignidad"), Maximilian Brückner ("Cherryblossoms"), Thomas Loibl ("Toni Erdmann") and Rafael Stachowiak ("Undine").

LOVE & MAZEL TOV

BY WOLFGANG MURNBERGER

GENRE

Romantic Comedy
TV Movie, 90 min

A Romantic comedy about a little lie with big consequences.

At a party, Daniel pretends to be Jewish to impress Anne. The pretty bookstore owner specialised in Jewish literature in her bookshop, volunteers at a Jewish home for the elderly and is also a close friend of the Jewish author Schlomo Wisniewski. When Anne and Daniel become a couple, their friends Laura and Tobias have an inkling that Daniel's hoax will soon be exposed. His initially small con turns into an unmanageable web of white lies that Daniel can't get out of. Will Anne also love him when she learns that he is not Jewish at all?

"Love & Mazel Tov" is a warm-hearted and witty love story. A plea for love against all prejudices. Produced by the renowned production companies ConradFilm ("Dark Woods") and Bavaria Fiction ("Das Boot") and directed by multiple award-winning director Wolfgang Murnberger, this charming RomCom will strike right to the heart.

Freddy is a modern dad: while his wife Juliana commutes to Zurich for work, he looks after 13-year old Zoë and little Niko, while also working as the newly appointed head of a pre-school.

In "The Joys of Fatherhood", Oliver Wnuk alias Freddy Kleemann, learns that there are limits to the capacities of a loving father, caring son and committed pre-school manager. Even though a relationship crash is imminent, the nice-guy protagonist is finding it difficult to dial down the intensity of his exhausting multitasking life. In the third film of this high-ratings comedy series "Modern Dad", the focus also falls – sympathetically and realistically – on the topic of aging: while Freddy's father must face his advancing dementia, his mother-in-law realises that she does not want to let what time remains to her slip by.

A highly popular comedy, playing with our preconceptions of gender role models in a charming way, while still asking the very relevant question as to which work is valued more: career or care work.

“TWO IN A MILLION” IS A ROMANTIC COMEDY WITH MANY FAMILIAR GERMAN FACES AND VOICES FROM THE WORLD OF SPORTS

TWO IN A MILLION

BY MATTHIAS TIEFENBACHER

Parcel carrier Henry Lafers lives a modest life in Hamburg’s city center with his wife Ellen and daughter Flo. He grew up on a fruit farm in the Alte Land, but left it a good 20 years ago after constant arguments with his father Knuth. His only plan was to get away.

“Lucky in cards, unlucky in love” is the perfect description of delivery driver Henry in “Two in a Million”: first his wife leaves him after 21 years of marriage and then the jackpot winner, through thoughtless selfishness, risks messing up a new chance of happiness too. His “favorite colleague” Mona, played by Nadeshda Brennicke, wants the “old” Henry back, the one who thought about others and knew how to share. Equal parts humorous and emotional, director Matthias Tiefenbacher tells the story of small and big dreams that can change your life when they surprise you by coming true.

A beautiful love story that also takes place in the exciting setting of the racetrack.

Chaos can be a good thing – it can even bring you love! Not that either Philipp or Frederike are thinking along these lines when they randomly meet. The two single parents are just trying to think straight and calm their heart rates after a bomb disposal operation blows up their tightly scheduled plans for the day:

Philipp is trying to get to a property viewing on time, so he can find a new home for himself and seven-year-old Miriam. Frederike's situation is even more urgent, as she must vacate her apartment with her son Fritz and is therefore searching for a kitchen she can use. She is a chef and has the opportunity to land her dream job, but she must prepare a sample menu for her prospective boss that evening. On the spur of the moment Philipp and Frederike decide to help each other out. What starts as crisis management soon develops into something a little more romantic.

Physiotherapist Julika is a young, attractive mother of two sweet children – and a widow. Two years ago, her husband Michi died in an accident. Julika still misses him sorely, even regularly leaves him a voicemail. Nevertheless, she rushes headlong into an affair with the easy-going bicycle city guide Konstantin. Suddenly life is full of lightness again, full of magic and adventure. But is this really love?

Can there be a new great love for Julika after her great love Michi? For her loving but sometimes overbearing parents-in-law Georg and Christa the case is clear: The affair with Konstantin can only be an “animalistic” aberration. After Michi’s death, the family is very attached to each other, and even live together in the same house. But with Konstantin, the whole family structure is thrown into disarray. How sure can Julika be of Konstantin, who until now has never really wanted to commit himself?

“Another Love” is a real love film about great love, past love and future love.

LIVING THE DREAM

BY INGO RASPER

Air stewardess Sophie wants a fresh start. She decides to try her hand at running a guest house tucked away in a remote farm in the Alps. Standing in the way of her dream, however, is her cantankerous new neighbor, a real Bavarian curmudgeon.

Fresh country air, lush meadows and an impressive mountain panorama – air stewardess Sophie really falls hard for the remote Fuchsbichler farm the minute she sees it. Despite the fact that her husband Philippe and daughter Leonie have other plans, the bubbly city girl forges ahead and signs on the dotted line. Annoyed by her pigheadedness, Philippe decides to take some time out. Now on her own, Sophie decides to go ahead with the move along with her daughter. But the purchase contract for Ludwig Fuchsbichler's quaint little farm has a catch: the previous resident, Ludwig's brother Barthl, has "barn rights" for life. To put Sophie off the idea of life in the country as quickly as possible, the cranky old man moves into the barn. As feared, Barthl is anything but an accommodating neighbor.

The topics of sustainability and mindfulness are perennial issues on the agenda of Western societies and often manifest in a form of newly acquired "Landlust", a desire to live off the land.

CURIOUS TOBI AND THE TREASURE HUNT TO THE FLYING RIVERS

BY JOHANNES HONSELL

GENRE

Family Entertainment
92 min

Curious Tobi receives a mysterious, locked treasure chest. Only one person has the key: Marina – Tobi's best friend from childhood. But where is she? The search for her kickstarts a great adventure that takes Tobi all around the world to the most stunning places.

The journey takes him to Vietnam to the largest cave in the world, into the famous Hả Long Bay with its thousands of limestone islets, across the stormy South China Sea, to nomads in the Mongolian steppes and on to the Indigenous peoples of the Amazon rainforest in Brazil. Always with one goal in mind: solving the riddle of the treasure chest and finding the mysterious flying rivers.

"Curious Tobi and the Treasure Hunt to the Flying Rivers" is a stunning adventure film that'll make the whole family gasp, think, and laugh. Shot at unique locations, the film not only impresses with its powerful images and its extremely entertaining storyline but also addresses urgent ecological issues of our time.

RomCom
92 min

When the notorious liar Greta unexpectedly kisses the lonesome butcher Alex on the neck at a bus stop, both of them are unaware that this chance encounter is exactly what they have been missing in their lives.

"The Intangible Joy of Love" sees two complete opposites colliding and then discovering that life has all kinds of things to offer even when it's quite late in the day – you just have to have the courage to go for it. It's funny and thoughtful, exciting and unexpected, profound and exhilarating. And always totally fascinating.

Lars Kraume ("The People vs. Fritz Bauer", "The Silent Revolution") directs the two multiple award-winning audience favourites Caroline Peters ("How About Adolf?", "Family Affairs", "What Have We Done To Deserve This?") and Burghart Klaußner ("The Educators", "The White Ribbon", "Oskars Kleid") in a charming love story based on Simon Stephens' successful stage play "Heisenberg".

„It's never too late to love"

A widower falls in love with his home aid. His middle-aged daughter does not approve the relationship. She feels like she's losing a father she never had.

Klaus Härö is one of the most successful Finnish filmmakers. One of his latest films "The Fence" (2015) was nominated for a Golden Globe Award and shortlisted for an Oscar®. His first feature film "Elina" won the Crystal Bear in Berlin 2003 and Ingmar Bergman prize in Sweden 2004. He has directed six feature films. Four of them have been Finnish national entries for Oscars®.

James Cosmo plays the lead role of a retired seafaring captain. Cosmo has starred at films like "Braveheart", "The Chronicles of Narnia" and in the TV-series "Game of Thrones". His counterpart is played by Bríd Brennan. She won IFTA and the TONY AWARD for 'Best Actress' for portrayal of Agnes in "Dancing at Lughnasa". Catherine Walker recently worked with Ridley Scott on "House of Gucci" and gave a stunning performance in the cult feature film "A Dark Song".

Tortured and threatened with deportation, the young German Jew Stella is forced into a fateful tragedy: She begins to track down fellow Jews in hiding.

Stella, a young German Jew, grows up in Berlin during the rule of the Nazi regime. She dreams of a career as a jazz singer, despite all the repressive measures. After she is forced to go into hiding with her parents in February 1943, her life turns into a culpable tragedy. Through a betrayal, she is caught by the Gestapo, tortured and becomes a "grabber": to save herself and her parents from deportation to Auschwitz, Stella begins to systematically betray other Jews. From September 1943 until the end of the war, Stella Goldschlag delivered hundreds of fellow Jews to the Gestapo.

The special relevance of Stella Goldschlag's story for today's audience lies in the complexity of the protagonist and the hopelessness of her situation: "Stella. A Life." is a breathtakingly modern story. Her main character could be one of us: she is young, self-confident and in love with herself. This woman is a perpetrator – but also a victim. She forces us into the dilemma of betrayal. How would we have decided?" says director and writer Kilian Riedhof.

LOST TRANSPORT

BY SASKIA DIESING

In the final days of the turmoil of World War II with German soldiers abandoning a deportation train to the fate of advancing Russian troops, the chance encounter between the distrustful German girl Winnie, the courageous Dutch Jew Simone and the fearless Russian sniper Vera leads to an unexpected friendship.

In the spring of 1945, a deportation train carrying over 2,000 Jewish concentration camp prisoners is stranded in East Germany. The German train leaders flee from the Red Army, which has already occupied the nearby village of Tröbitz. The people on the train are left to fend for themselves and rely on help from the village. But between deep mistrust, despair and a desire for revenge, a friendship grows unexpectedly between the German girl Winnie (Anna Bachmann), the Dutch Jew Simone (Hanna van Vliet) and the Russian sniper Vera.

In the ruins of war, three strong female protagonists have to break away from their survival strategies, overcome their resentment, anger and mistrust in order to see the others as human beings again and meet them with compassion. From a female perspective, Saskia Diesing links real events about flight, deportation and occupation.

PLAN A

BY YOAV AND DORON PAZ

Based on a true story. In 1945, a group of Jewish holocaust survivors planned to poison the water system in Germany, killing 6 million Germans. The film tells the dangerous and bold secret-operation which was called “Plan A”.

Germany 1945, Max, a Jewish Holocaust survivor, meets a radical group of Jewish resistance fighters, who, like him, lost all hope for their future after they were robbed of their existence and their entire families were killed by the Nazis. They dream of retaliation on an epic scale for the Jewish people. An eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth. Max starts identifying with the group's monstrous plans ...

This gripping post-World War II drama stars “A Hidden Life” actor August Diehl alongside “Blade Runner 2049”’s Sylvia Hoeks. The film addresses profound questions about justice, revenge and morality, dealing with the primal feelings of human nature after surviving unimaginable cruelties. PLAN A is an important and different kind of Holocaust film, and one based on a true story. Written and directed by Yoav and Doron Paz (“Phobidilia”, “The Golem”).

At 12, it was angel dust. At 13, it was heroin. Then she hit the streets.

When 13-year old Christiane is introduced to the disco scene in late 1970s Berlin, her life changes utterly. Her new friends take LSD and heroin and soon she too becomes an addict. In the mornings, she goes to school and in the afternoons she is a child prostitute, turning tricks for her next hit. Instead of freedom, heroin only brings ruin and death, and takes some of her closest friends ...

The cult classic, telling the true story of Christiane F.'s descent into heroin addiction and prostitution, is now available in a fully restored 4K version. Produced by Bernd Eichinger ("Downfall") and Hans Weth ("The Noah's Ark Principle"), and directed by Uli Edel ("The Baader Meinhof Complex"), the movie masterfully captures the hopes and fears of a lost generation of Berlin youth, set against the backdrop of the disco scene of the late 1970s. The heartbreaking movie features a special appearance by David Bowie, and the soundtrack is peppered with some of his biggest hits.

Maka, a Tongan superfan, will do whatever it takes to get tickets to the Tonga v France Rugby World Cup game - even if that means promising to deliver a brass band for the pre-match entertainment. Only problem is, the band doesn't exist and Maka has four weeks to make one. Inspired by a true story.

When Maka and Veni fail in getting tickets for the most important game of their lives, they decide to form a traditional Tongan marching band, just so they can go to the game. No one in their band of misfits knows anything about marching and they practice using plastic bottles and tin cans for instruments. It is a complete shambles and if they can't get their act together, they will embarrass their entire Tongan community in front of the world. However, what starts out as just a cynical scam to see a rugby game becomes a journey of self-discovery in which Maka and Veni will learn the importance of their Tongan culture.

FAMILY AFFAIRS

BY SÖNKE WORTMANN

GENRE

Black Comedy
Feature Film, 87 min

It was supposed to be a harmonious family get-together. But no sooner have husband and wife Stephan and Elisabeth arrived on Lanzarote with new parents Thomas and Anna than new conflicts start erupting in the Böttcher family. Elisabeth and Thomas can hardly believe it when their mother Dorothea announces that she and adopted son René are now married and that they want to have children!

Three years after the highly successful comedy of manners "How About Adolf?", acclaimed director Sönke Wortmann ("Contra", "Ms Müller Must Go") is now back with the equally caustic sequel "Family Affairs". The leading role of the mother is played by Iris Berben, known from "Triangle of Sadness". In varying alliances, a family starts wrangling over complicated lines of inheritance, impossible pregnancies and the modern concept of what a family is – with the Spanish sun, the charms of a young female vintner and the effects of space cookies escalating the situation even further.

A strong, original and incomparable story by Margit Auer and illustrated by Nina Dulleck, translated into over 20 languages and published in multiple territories such as China, Japan, South Korea, all of Eastern Europe, the Nordic region, Israel, Turkey, Greece, the Netherlands, Spain and Portugal.

The students of the school of magical animals want to perform a musical for the school's anniversary. Will the rehearsals end in chaos or will the class pull together? And what's up with the strange holes on the school grounds? With the help of their magical animals, the children learn what really matters: teamwork. "School of Magical Animals 2" is a warm-hearted adventure with CGI-animated animals, set in an unusual school where the children receive a magical animal as a companion.

"School of Magical Animals" is one of the most successful children's and young people's book series with over 7 million copies sold in German-speaking countries. Director Sven Unterwaldt ("7 Dwarves", "Help - I Shrunk My Teacher") beautifully translated the essence of the books along with impressive visuals into an exceptional children's film. The prequel was sold by Global Screen to 100 countries.

Maurice, a streetwise tomcat, has come up with the perfect money-making scam. The family entertainment film is inspired by the Grimm Brothers' fairytale about the Pied Piper of Hamelin – the cat and a young pipe player named Keith lead a band of rats from town to town faking rat invasions! It works perfectly – until their cheat is uncovered.

This incredibly lively, unique and entertaining animated feature film is based on one of Sir Terry Pratchett's highly popular "Discworld" novels that have sold more than 90 million books worldwide. One of the highest-grossing screenwriters of all time, Oscar®-nominated Terry Rossio, whose extensive credits include "Shrek", "Aladdin", and "Pirates of the Caribbean", has penned the screenplay. Carter Goodrich, who worked on "Ratatouille", "The Groods", "Despicable Me", is onboard for the character design. The stellar voice cast is led by Emilia Clarke, Hugh Laurie, David Thewlis, Himesh Patel and Gemma Arterton. Toby Genkel ("Oops! Noah is Gone ...") is directing this international co-production. Young reindeer Niko is being raised by his single mother, but he knows his Dad is a member of Santa's legendary Flying Forces – the coolest reindeers around! He has never met his Daddy, though, and everybody laughs at his attempts to fly, since he keeps on falling down.

When a herd of hungry wolves, led by the evil Black Wolf, attacks the reindeer herd, Niko feels responsible and heads off on a desperate, dangerous mission through icy blizzards and across wild terrain to find his father. Accompanied by Julius, a clumsy flying squirrel, who has nurtured the boy since he was a baby, they save the life of sassy young singing weasel Wilma. Reluctantly grateful, Wilma shows Niko and Julius the way to Santa's Workshop. On his journey, Niko discovers an evil plan to destroy the famous flying squadron, and replace it with the evil Black Wolf and his gang. Not only Niko's Dad is in grave danger, but Christmas itself ...

This fun-filled fairy-tale for the whole family about reindeer Niko and his friends was released successfully all over the world.

THE PATH

BY TOBIAS WIEMANN

On the run from the Nazis, Rolf and his father find themselves stranded in southern France. The young shepherd girl Núria has offered to guide them along a secret path through the Pyrenees, but Rolf's father gets arrested halfway. Will the two children manage to escape on their own?

In 1940, critical journalist Ludwig Kirsch sees only one way out: To escape Nazi-controlled Europe with his twelve-year-old son Rolf. A path from southern France to Spain over the Pyrenees can lead the two to freedom and finally to New York, where Rolf's mother is already eagerly waiting to be able to embrace them again. The parentless twelve-year-old girl Núria is to guide Rolf and Ludwig over the dangerous route. When Rolf is separated from his father in an incident, the two children are completely on their own and quickly learn that the only way to survive in this situation is to stick together and rely on each other.

Director Tobias Wiemann has succeeded with the path in making a breathtaking film that is for adults as well as for a young audience. A story based on true historical events during the Second World War about courage, solidarity, the will to survive and friendship.

On the same day that Cecilia and Une meet Leo for the first time, a corpse turns up on the beach in their idyllic Norwegian bay.

12-year-old Cecilia lives in an idyllic holiday paradise on the Norwegian coast where her father is running a beautiful boarding house. There, she and her best friend Une soon become friends with the big city boy Leo who recently moved with his mother to the countryside. The trio finds a dead man lying on the beach below the guest house. Who is the dead man, how did he get here, and could he have anything to do with the death of Cecilia's mum the year before? The trio and their dog Egon start unwinding the road to the truth, which is a perilous one, lined with escaped prisoners, mysterious guests, secret diaries and dark, old passages into bunkers left from the war.

“Clue: The Maltese Mystery” is a highly atmospheric and adventurous mystery with a charming trio of three young detectives set in the beautiful Norwegian landscape. It's a Nordic noir film for kids, based on the adaption of internationally bestselling novels of acclaimed author Jørn Lier Horst's. Hugo tries to suppress it and fights an inner battle not to help the elf girl Snow, who has lost her elf parents and lives alone with her siblings. Snow can't make the reindeer fly because she never learned magic. But Hugo is done with elf adventures – or is he?

Helpfulness or coolness? Of course, our grown-up hero Hugo (Pelle Krusbæk from Thomas Vinterberg's Oscar®-nominated "The Hunt") chooses the right way in this enchanting third installment of the successful "The Christmas Family" movies. The magical and exciting adventure fires the imagination, brims with humour and fun. A tentpole attraction for the holiday season.
